

Bill Garlough Appointed to U.S. Chamber Board of Directors

Bill Garlough of My Chef Catering has been elected to the prestigious U.S. Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation representing more than 3 million businesses of all sizes, sectors, and regions. It includes hundreds of associations, thousands of local chambers, and more than 100 American Chambers of Commerce in 91 countries.

The board is made up of a veritable who's-who of U.S. businesses, most seats are held by chief officers and presidents of many national companies. The board includes senior Vice Presidents of 3M, FedEx Express, and Rolls Royce America; the Chief Financial Officer of IBM; and the Chief Executive Officers of the American Medical Association and Mutual of Omaha.

Garlough was first recognized by the U.S. Chamber when My Chef Catering was named the national U.S. Chamber Small Business of the Year for 2007. My Chef Catering was awarded the prestigious title of "Small Business of the Year" by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce during the America's Small Business Summit 2007 in Washington D.C. on May 24. He has now been elected to serve a two-year term that runs through 2010.

Garlough has also joined the Small Business Council at the U.S. Chamber. "Being involved in the Chamber of Commerce on a national level is something I'm really honored, and excited to do," Garlough said. "I especially look forward to working with the Small Business Council because I'm passionate about the success of small businesses."

My Chef Catering has been a Naperville institution since 1989. The company provides catering services for approximately 3,500 events per year, with 57 percent of clients originating from the corporate sector. The annual growth rate for My Chef Catering is routinely in the double digits, and owners Bill and Karen Garlough utilized their Fortune 100 backgrounds to establish a premium quality brand and signature style.
